Child Care Jobs

About Child Care Centers

Child Care Centers offer the most comprehensive collection of information about childcare in the U.S.

Selecting a childcare center is one of the most important decisions we make as parents. It's important to choose a preschool or home daycare where children love to go and safety is the utmost concern.

Please use the Quick Search box found on the home page to find the perfect child care solution for your family!

Child Care

Providers and their homes are different and unique just as families are. Please arrange an interview with a potential FCC Provider to assure compatibility. The FCC Provider you select will play an important role in your child's life. Most of your child's waking hours will be spent with that Provider. The Provider will guide, teach, and nurture your child.

Here are some items to check for and questions to ask when interviewing a potential provider:

- Is the home kept clean?
- Is there room for children to play indoors and outdoors?
- Is there a place for naps?
- Is the home free of safety hazards?
- Does the provider seem to know a lot about child Development and childcare?
- Does the provider seem to truly like children and are they patient with the children?
- What training has the provider had?

The FCC Provider sets fees. Prior to starting care families must:

- Complete a written contract regarding fees and policies.
- Provide proof of immunizations.

Here are some other points to remember when you find care:

- Visit your FCC home anytime during the day. Check to see what kind of care is being provided.
- Discuss your goals and the Provider's goals for your child and work together to accomplish those goals.
- Keep the Provider informed about the health of your child. If your child is ill and will not be going to the FCC home, notify the Provider as soon as possible.
- Pay for fees on time - the Provider deserves your consideration.
- Be thoughtful and considerate of your provider - drop off and pick up your child on time or call if you are delayed.

Air Force Family Child Care Expanded Child Care (AF FCC ECC)

All AF FCC ECC requires approval by AFMC/SVPYC.

All AF FCC ECC availability is based on funding and child care spaces.

AF FCC Subsidy – complete only if applicable

I am requesting enrollment in the AF FCC Subsidy Program. I understand I am required to be on the waiting list for either the CDC or SA Program (if applicable). If I am offered a full-time space in the CDC or SA Program and I decline the space and there is no active waiting list (meaning another child/youth to take the space), then AF FCC Subsidy is discontinued.

The Key Spouse is the face of unit leadership to families. Their performance directly impacts the quality of life and morale of unit families. Caring for families on the home front allows the war fighter to focus on his/her mission at home and downrange. The Commander appoints the individual in writing, and refers to the Airman and Family Readiness Program Manager for training. The Commander and First Sergeant rely on the Volunteer Point of Contact’s judgment, reliability, and positive attitude in accomplishing the goals of the program. These caring individuals are your “go-to” representatives for all things military/family related whether your service member is deployed, TDY, or on the Homefront.

MTANG Family Programs Mission Statement

Family Readiness programs will be established at group, squadron, or flight levels to help families prepare for, maintain during and transition after separations resulting from military duty requirements. Additionally, the programs will encourage community building through meaningful family activities. Organized and functioning Family Readiness Programs will strengthen families and increase the guard members ability to give full attention to duty.
